

CBD Website Certification Questionnaire

This is the information that applicants are required to provide when applying for LegitScript CBD Website Certification.

Company Information

- Legal business name
- Doing business as
- Primary website URL
- Your name and contact information
- A list of your company's corporate officers, directors, or other individuals who exercise control over significant business decisions
- A list of all domain names that are owned or operated by your company or any of its principals

Website Documentation and Questions

- Please provide a list of all websites you would like to be considered for LegitScript Certification.
- Please provide a spreadsheet (template provided by LegitScript) with an overview of licensing, registration, or legal compliance, including:
 - All jurisdictions to which your company sells its products
 - All corporate registrations held by your company
 - All required licenses or registrations, if applicable, for the jurisdictions in which your company operates or sells products
- Please provide a list of all LegitScript-certified products your website is selling at this time.

As the leading third-party certification expert in tightly regulated and complex sectors, LegitScript is trusted by Visa, Google, Bing, Facebook, and major global payment service providers.

Apply for CBD Certification today at: my.legitscript.com

Contact Us
1-877-534-4879
legitscript.com/contact

- Please provide supply chain documentation demonstrating the products your company sells have been acquired by a LegitScript-certified manufacturer.
- Does your company sell products other than those containing hemp-derived CBD?
 - If so, provide a current list and description of those products.
- Have you been audited or inspected by applicable regulators, including but not limited to, FDA , DEA, USDA, state hemp/cannabis regulators, etc. in the last five years?
 - If so, please upload any audits or inspection reports.
- Have your company, officers, employees, or affiliated companies been the subject of disciplinary action within the last five years?
 - If so, describe the events related to the discipline and any corrective actions that have been put in place. Also, please upload any relevant documents.
- Has your company been subject to any fine or reprimand with regard to financial transaction within the last five years?
 - If so, please explain.
- Does your business have any agreements in which a party is compensated for referring business to your company?
 - If so, please describe all relationships.
- If your primary website is currently under construction or in a stage of development, please describe when you anticipate the changes to be completed and when LegitScript will be able to review a version of this website before it is published.
- If your website features an area where a user must sign in, please provide any necessary credentials LegitScript will need to access it.